TRUST VISION STATEMENT

“The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches.” (Matthew 13: 31-32)

In the parable of The Mustard Seed, Jesus reminds us that even the smallest of seeds has the potential to grow into the fullness of itself. We aim to provide the right environment for our children, and all whom we serve, to flourish into the fullness of themselves. He tells us these seeds grow into trees, capable of providing a home for a rich diversity of life, our work is to ensure all in our communities grow into people of compassion and wisdom with a deep spiritual understanding of how to support the needs of others.

1 Aims and Introduction

This privacy notice describes how we collect, store and use visitors' personal information.

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

2 Data controller, Representative of the Data Controller and the Data Protection Officer (DPO)

The board of trustees has considered the purpose of the trust holding reserves and how much should be held to meet those purposes.

For LDBS Academies Trust schools, the LDBS Academies Trust is the data controller for the purposes of data protection. For LDBS Academies Trust 2 schools, the LDBS Academies Trust 2 is the data controller for the purposes of data protection. Hereafter the LDBS Academies Trust and the LDBS Academies Trust 2 will collectively be referred to as "the Trust". The Headteachers act as the Representative of the Data Controller on a day-to-day basis.

The Trust has appointed Grow Education Partners as our independent Data Protection service. The independent Data Protection Officers for the Trust and our schools are:

- For LDBS Academies Trust schools and the central Trust: Jay Makwana of Grow Education Partners, email: jay.makwana@london.anglican.org, tel: 020 3837 5073).
- For LDBS Academies Trust 2 schools: David McCoy (email: david.coy@london.anglican.org, tel: 020 3837 5073).

3 The personal data we process

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Name
- Company/Institution details
- Vehicle registration details
- Closed-circuit television Images (CCTV) images
- Disclosure and Barring Service details
- Photo ID/Image
- Relevant medical information: such as physical or mental health conditions, including any disabilities for which the organisation needs to make any reasonable adjustments to fulfil its duty of care

A full breakdown of the data we collect on visitors can be requested by contacting the central team of the Trust on info@latmat.org.uk or the headteacher of the school (see the school website for contact details).

4 Why we collect and process this data.

The reasons we collect and process this data includes but is not limited to:

- Fulfilling our legal obligations in relation to Keeping Children Safe in Education and Health & Safety.
- Informing our operational procedures
- Complying with the law regarding data sharing.

5 The lawful basis for processing this data

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information. These are defined under data protection legislation and for personally identifiable information are:

- Processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the school.
- Processing is necessary for tasks in the public interest or exercise of authority vested in the school (the provision of education).

When we process special category information, which is deemed to be more sensitive, the following lawful basis are used:

- It is necessary to fulfil the school's obligations or your obligations

- It is necessary to protect your vital interests
- Reasons for public interest in the area of public health.

Where we have obtained consent to use personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

6 How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Data Protection policy.

Your data will be stored in the school's Electronic Visitor system for 7 years (or, in absence of this in our visitor book) for 1 week/1 month and then removed to be stored in a secure filing system for 7 years.

7 Who we share this data with.

In order for us to legally, effectively and efficiently function we are required to share data with appropriate third parties, including but not limited to:

- Ofsted - during a school inspection
- Security organisations - to create a secure environment for all
- Our auditors, to ensure our compliance with our legal obligations
- Public bodies, such as NHS England
- Professional advisers and consultants - for us to develop our services and best provide our public service
- Police forces, courts, tribunals and security services.

8 Transferring data internationally

We may send your information to other countries when:

- we or a company we work with store information on computer servers based overseas; or
- we communicate with you when you are overseas.
- We conduct due diligence on the companies we share data with and note whether they process data in the UK, EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) or outside of the EEA.
- The UK and countries in the EEA are obliged to adhere to the requirements of the GDPR and have equivalent legislation which confer the same level of protection to your personal data.
- For organisations who process data outside the UK and EEA we will assess the circumstances of how this occurs and ensure there is no undue risk.

Additionally, we will assess if there are adequate legal provisions in place to transfer data outside of the UK.

9 Data Protection Rights

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we can:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- NOT provide information where it compromises the privacy of others
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

In most cases, we will respond to subject access requests within 1 month, as required under data protection legislation. However, we are able to extend this period by up to 2 months for complex requests or exceptional circumstances.

10 Your Other Rights regarding your Data

You may:

- Withdraw your consent to processing at any time (this only relates to data for which the school relies on consent as a lawful basis for processing)
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it in certain circumstances and where sufficient supporting evidence is supplied
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing
- Challenge processing which has been justified on the basis of public interest, official authority or legitimate interests.
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the United Kingdom.
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision making or profiling (decisions taken with no human involvement, that might negatively affect you)
- Request a cease to any processing that is likely to cause damage or distress
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances
- Refer a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)
- Ask for your personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances)

The Trust will comply with the Data Protection legislation in regard to dealing with all data requests submitted in any format, although individuals are asked to preferably submit their request in written format to assist with comprehension.

Requests should include:

- Name of individual
- Correspondence address

- Contact number and email address
- Details of the request

If you would like to exercise any of the rights or requests listed above, please contact the central team of the Trust by email on info@latmat.org.uk, or the headteacher of the school (see contact details on the school website).

We reserve the right to verify the requesters' identity by asking for Photo ID. If this proves insufficient, then further ID may be required.

Article 22 of the UK GDPR has additional rules to protect individuals from decisions made solely for the purpose of automated decision-making and profiling. The school does not carry out any automated decision-making and/or profiling on Directors, LAC members or volunteers.

11 Data Protection Breaches

If you suspect that your or someone else's data has been subject to unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, we ask that you please contact the central team of the Trust by email on info@latmat.org.uk, or the headteacher of the school (see contact details on the school website).

12 Contact us.

If you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact the central team of the Trust by email on info@latmat.org.uk, or the headteacher of the school (see contact details on the school website).
